Dear Paul,

I apologize for the delay in sending you information from our files on ~~Mr. Charles~~ Jeanotte. I have enclosed copies of past correspondence between you and Gene Cruse in this regard along with a newspaper clipping of June 17, 1977. Also enclosed is a copy of a letter from a father regarding Mr. Jeanotte.

In March of 1980, Mr. Jeanotte apparently attempted to get involved in Stockton, California and his behavior prompted an inquiry from that Council on his background. Again this year, I received an inquiry from Bob Meinholtz at St. Louis.

As requested, you now have the pertinent information from our files.

Personal regards,

James O. Case

Charles Jeanotte
... former minister

Fired Scout adviser denies boy's charge

By PAM KING

A former minister who says he's no longer homosexual was fired this week as adviser to a Boy Scout troop. A scout reportedly complained that the former minister had made advances towards him during a camping trip.

Charles Jeanotte, 31, said the commander of the American Legion Post 468, 344 Dorsey Road, Greece, of which he's a member and which sponsors the eight-member Boy Scout troop, fired him as institutional representative Tuesday night. Jeanotte denies the scout's reported accusations.

But Jeanotte's position with the troop may not be permanently lost.

Some of the boys in the troop say they probably wouldn't want to be scouts unless Jeanotte, who founded the troop, is involved, and say they don't want the American Legion to be the troop's sponsor if members won't reinstate Jeanotte.

So American Legion Post 468's auxiliary has offered to sponsor the troop, an auxiliary member, Jean Lyons, said. She said the auxiliary thought it would be for the boys' benefit to sponsor the troop and keep it intact. Jeanotte would be institutional representative until the auxiliary meets as a group and votes whether to replace him, an officer said.

As institutional representative,

SCOUT ADVISER

Jeanotte would serve as liaison between the auxiliary, the troop committee and the scouts.

Gene Cruse, scout executive at the Boy Scouts of America's district office, said the auxiliary would have to apply for its own charter to sponsor the troop. He said he's meeting with Jeanotte tonight to discuss the situation.

John R. Altavena, the Legion commander who fired Jeanotte, said, "As long as this controversy exists, I had to alleviate the problem until the facts are known. I did not make accusations about a particular situation. I asked him (Jeanotte) pertinent questions about his involvements and attitudes."

Jeanotte said a new troop member apparently told his mother that Jeanotte had "touched the boy's private parts" on a camping trip in Sodus last weekend. The boy also told his mother that Jeanotte was a former homosexual. Altavena said the mother complained to the Boy Scouts' main office.

The American Legion post will discuss the case at an executive body meeting "very soon," Altavena said.

"I can honestly say they didn't treat him fairly," Barbara Roggow, a member of the troop committee and mother of two scouts, said. "He's the best troop committeeman I've ever seen."

Adam Roggow, 13, said "every single" boy in the troop would back

"C.C.," a nickname they use for Jeanotte. He said Jeanotte had done a great job so far.

Mrs. Roggow said Jeanotte told all the parents of the five original scouts that he has been an ex-homosexual and an out-patient at the Rochester Psychiatric Center.

Altavena said Jeanotte had been appointed head of the Legion post's youth committee in February by a former post commander. He said he didn't know Jeanotte had been a homosexual until he took over as commander.

Jeanotte said Altavena "had his mind made up" even before he went to talk to him Tuesday night.

In November 1973, Jeanotte founded an inter-denominational church for homosexuals. An ordained priest of the American Orthodox Catholic Church, Jeanotte said he's resigned the ministry. He said he has not been homosexual since May 1975, when he stopped serving as minister for the gay congregation.

"This is unjust, unfair and not right," Jeanotte said. "I put a good 300 hours in this troop in paperwork to get it ready and make it look good. It's the first case I know where the leader's been relieved and the organization's lost all the boys."

Altavena said it would cause "no problem whatsoever" if the legion post lost its scout troop. He said he thought it could recruit new scouts.

Jeanotte said he's contacted the local chapter of the American Civil Liberties Union about his case.

Attn: Mr. John F. McDonough

Dear Mr. McDonough,

My son [redacted] is now at Massawepie Camp Forester working on staff
as a commissary aid.

On Friday [redacted] was approached by a person in Rochester who made several advances to him. This individual identified himself as follows.

Charles Teeple
174 Merrill St.
Rochester N.Y. 14615

More important than the incident is the statements that the person made relative to Massawepie and to his association with Scouting. I have in my possession a card on which he has written "Forester 3rd period,
Aug 7-21 Troop 18" and "Ridge 2 Silver plate
Aug 7 7:30 A.M."

Even more disturbing is the fact that on July 2 when I drove [redacted] to East Avenue to get the Staff Bus this person was there and when he approached [redacted] I instructed him with a verbal warning to stay away from [redacted]
His comment was "I'm with the Scout" but he beat a hasty retreat and disappeared down
East Avenue.

Obviously, Mr. McDonough the sort of thing goes on every day in this life but when it hits home it is quite disturbing. I consider this type of individual a danger to society and a threat to decency. I feel as a father it my responsibility to protect my children and to make other copies of your accounts.

I do not know that his communications to

Dear Paul:

RE: Charles Jeanotte

This is in response to your letter of November 11 asking me to provide a confidential record sheet on Charles Jeanotte.

Currently, Mr. Jeanotte is registered in Troop 463 as a sponsor coordinator and chairman of the committee. After thorough investigation, we found there was no specific grounds to place him on the confidential list.

We are following Mr. Jeanotte's activities very closely, but at this point have nothing concrete. (I sure would like to find something.)

Sincerely,

M. Gene Cruse

SUBJECT: Charles Jeanotte

Dear Gene:

We are in receipt of a newspaper clipping concerning a fired Scout Adviser, Charles Jeanotte. Enclosed is a confidential record sheet.

In addition to this completed record sheet we would like to have a detailed letter containing all the facts in this case. A signed statement from the boy involved in this situation is also a necessity. When we receive this material we will review this case with our Attorney to determine if it should be on the Confidential File.

4508 WEST PINE BOULEVARD
ST. LOUIS, MISSOURI 63108

SCOUT EXECUTIVE
ST. LOUIS AREA COUNCIL
BOY SCOUTS OF AMERICA

PERSONAL & CONFIDENTIAL

May 5, 1981

Mr. Paul I. Ernst
Director of Registration Service
National Council, Boy Scouts of America
P. O. Box 61030
Dallas/Ft. Worth Airport, Texas 75261

Dear Paul:

Please find enclosed a Confidential Record Sheet on Charles Edward Jeanotte. I have talked to Mr. Park, our National attorney, and he suggested that even though the Council has no definite information that I forward this application to you on Mr. Jeanotte and I'm also forwarding his Summer Camp Staff Application in the same envelope.

Mr. Jeanotte arrived in St. Louis in March and made application to be Scoutmaster of Troop 731 which is a Troop for the deaf in a St. Louis public school. He also, at the same time, made application for Summer Camp Staff this summer in St. Louis. In checking his references of two archbishops in New York, New York, we find no such address nor phone number, it has been disconnected. He told a parish priest in south St. Louis that he was a member of the Benedictine Order and celebrated mass in that parish. He also told the local bank that he was a Benedictine Monk.

Based on his application, I called Jim Case in Rochester, New York. He had a record on Mr. Jeanotte filled out by Gene Cruse. Mr. Jeanotte was accused of molestating two boys in Rochester, New York around 1975. Syracuse has the record on Mr. Jeanotte at that time.

I called Mr. Jeanotte into the office on Tuesday, April 28, 1981, and told him because of the discrepancies found on his Summer Camp Staff Application and because of him going on radio and TV soliciting money for the handicap Scout Troop, I could not accept his registration of Scoutmaster of Troop 731, (the Troop which has a considerable amount of money in a trust fund). They paid his registration fee and I have sent word to the National office to refund the registration fee so that I can give it back to the Troop and remove his name from the records.

CONF009130

DYKES_I_006999

Immediately following my conversation, which lasted approximately 45 seconds, he said there was nothing to talk about. (He went to the phone and tried to call Jim Tarr.) Maxene McFarland intercepted the call and talked to him. Mr. Jeanotte indicated that he was being falsely accused of homosexual activities that took place in Rochester 4 or 5 years ago, (I did not discuss this with Mr. Jeanotte) and unless he received a retraction from the National Council he would picket the St. Louis Area Council office on Saturday, May 2, 1981. This he did not do.

Jim Case also has information in his records that Mr. Jeanotte tried to register in Stockton, California and the local Council corresponded with Rochester on Mr. Jeanotte.

Based on all of the information that I have relative to his erroneous Camp Staff Application, I felt it necessary to refuse his registration and feel it would be advantageous if National places him under confidential file. Incidentally, the American Greek Orthodox Church here in St. Louis has no record of Mr. Jeanotte being a priest within their church.

If I can be of any further assistance to you, please let me know.

Sincerely,

Robert F. Meinholz
Scout Executive
