Special recognition

Recommended for Confidential File for following reasons:
Duval County detectives yesterday arrested James Jones, 32, a warehouse employee of 4654 Post St., on morals charges involving three boys and he was being held in county jail last night on $5,000 bond. Jones, who is unmarried, is charged with three counts of crime against nature and with lewd and lascivious handling and furnishing, lending and giving obscene literature and possession of obscene literature. Warrants on the charges were issued by Juvenile Court Judge L. Winegeaert.
