DISPOSITION DATE:

DISPOSITION:

At approximately 1:30-PM Sunday (Easter) April, 18th, 1965 Mr [REDACTED] of 223 - 5th, Ave, came into the Police Department with his son (the victim) [REDACTED] age 12 years and reported that one RICHARD GLENN HAMM age 26 years of 1000 - 20th, Avenue a friend of the family, had taken his son to his home, and took him to the bed room and had him get into bed and then he took off his trousers and pulled down his shorts and played with his person.

The phone rang and when he answered the phone he told the victim to stay in bed and take a sleep as he was going to the store and would be right back. When he left the boy got dressed and called his father to come and get him. He went outside the house and hid behind a car until his father arrived, and told him the above story.

Dt Sgts Crawford & Aurandt talked to the boy [REDACTED] on the morning of April, 20th, 1965 and he gave a statement as to what had happened.

He relates that he had been in the Altoona Hospital around January, 1963, and was friendly with another boy (he does not remember his name) who was in another room and that the defendant RICHARD HAMM came into visit this boy and that is how he first met MR HAMM. A few days before he was discharged from the Hospital, MR HAMM came into his room and there was no one there. MR HAMM then pulled the covers down, and then pulled down his pajama pants and played with his privates. After about a minute a nurse came in and he quickly pulled up the covers. The boy stated that he was too frightened about this at that time to tell any one, and never revealed this until this later incident on Easter Sunday.

He relates that MR HAMM became a friend of his parents after meeting them at the Hospital and would visit their home. Just lately he went fishing a couple times with his father and him.

On this particular Sunday April, 18th, 1965 he states that MR HAMM called his home as he and his wife were to come to his place for dinner, and he asked his father if they could have the dinner later as his wife was working until six o'clock, and this was agreed upon

Shortly after 1:00-PM MR HAMM came to his home with his baby, and asked his father if the boy [REDACTED] could go along back to his home with him for the afternoon. The boy stated that he and his father both thought that MR HAMM might want him to watch the baby for him, so it was agreed that he could go along with MR HAMM. The boy stated that MR HAMM seemed to be in an awful hurry to get going.

After they got to the HAMM home, what has already been related took place. [REDACTED] States that at no time did MR HAMM harm him and the only thing he would say was to keep quiet, and made no further attempts to do anything except to just play with his privates.

A warrant was obtained from Alderman Robert Jones and MR HAMM was arrested at his home about 12:30-PM April, 20th, 1965. He had reported off sick from the Hospital this date.

When brought into Police Headquarters and confronted with the charges made by [REDACTED], he admitted the whole thing, and stated that he could not help himself and did not know why he did this. He admitted the whole thing verbally to Dt Sgts Crawford, Aurandt and Inspector R.C. Sell, but would not give a written statement until he would consult his Lawyer, Harold Miller.

He was later released on One thousand Dollars bail for a hearing before Alderman Jones.

PERSONAL AND CONFIDENTIAL
Re: Richard G. Hamm
ASM, Troop 55

Dear Mr. Turner:

Thank you for your separated notice dated April 26, and the attached newspaper clipping concerning Richard Hamm, Assistant Scoutmaster of Troop 55. We have placed this information in our files.

However, before we can take final action regarding this matter, we would very much appreciate your writing us a detailed letter including a complete report regarding the facts that led to Mr. Hamm's arrest and, particularly, the facts pertaining to the charge of corrupting the morals of a minor. We will then be in a better position to determine how to handle this matter.

Enclosed is a confidential record sheet which we will also appreciate your filling out and returning to us, together with the above requested information. This will then enable us to identify Mr. Hamm should he ever again attempt to register in the Scouting program.

Sincerely yours,
PERSONNEL DIVISION
