Dear Skipper:

I am enclosing a confidential record sheet on Richard L. Rineer, whose name is to be placed in the confidential file.

The District Executive and I were advised of the charge against this individual within hours of the time of the arrest on June 4, 1962. Proper measures have been taken to proceed with the resignation of this individual from the Scouting movement that is indicated by the enclosed resignation letter and registration card.

The Pastor of the church that sponsors this unit has taken a very active interest in this case, and the unit committee is informed of this situation and a meeting was called with the parents of the Scouts attending to assure them that all measures are being taken to adjust the situation and to avoid the occurrence of malicious rumors. You will also notice that there is a copy of a news release that appeared in a County newspaper regarding this matter.

If there is any further information that you may require, please don't hesitate to make such a request.

Sincerely,

John A. Veldhoven
Assistant Scout Executive

Teacher Is Jailed

PROSPECT PARK - A Boy Scout leader and school teacher was ordered held without bail for four days yesterday.

The man, identified as Robert G. Rice, 37, of 205 Shelton St., Providence, was arrested yesterday at the Park Avenue School. He was arraigned before Justice of the Peace Andrew W. Bilder.

Rice has been a teacher at the Park Avenue School for three years, and a Boy Scout leader for the past eight years. He is also a member of the park board and the police board.

Rice was questioned by police on his connection with the Boy Scout troop's Explorer Post. The boys are sponsored by the school system and the Boy Scout troop.

Rice, who teaches history, said he was innocent of any wrongdoing.

Rice lives at 205 Shelton St., Providence, and is the father of two children, ages 10 and 12. He has been married for 10 years and is a member of the local Democratic Committee.

PROSPECT PARK — A Boy Scout leader and school teacher was ordered held without bail for court on four morals charges Tuesday.

The man was identified as Richard Rinier, 27, of the 700 block of 10th Avenue.

He was committed to Broadmeadows Prison Tuesday afternoon after a hearing before Justice of the Peace Elwood W. Richter.

Rinier was formerly a teacher in the Interboro Joint School District and scoutmaster of Boy Scout Troop 169.

Dr. James Burk, superintendent of Interboro Schools, said Rinier had submitted a resignation effective at the end of the current school term.

He said Rinier was suspended until his resignation becomes effective.

Rinier taught at the Pennsylvania Avenue School in Prospect Park Dr. Burk said.

Rinier was scoutmaster of Boy Scout Troop 169. The Rev. Robert Nagle, pastor of Immanuel Lutheran Church of Norwood, which sponsors the troop, said Rinier is not presently scoutmaster, but
