Dear Mr. Jackson:

After careful review, we have decided that your registration with the Boy Scouts of America should not be accepted. We are therefore compelled to request that you sever any relations that you may have with the Boy Scouts of America.

You should understand that BSA leadership registration is a privilege and is not automatically granted to everyone who applies. We reserve the right to refuse registration whenever there is a concern that an individual may not measure up to the high standards of leadership which the BSA seeks to provide for American youth. Asst. Scout Master
O.A. Chapter Adviser
Come into the Campmaster Colotin at 11:30 a.m. Friday 5-3-25.

He appeared markedly upset and shaking.

He said, "You won't believe this.

Jim Jackson took several liberties with me. All the Campmasters present upon seeing this, got out of bed and came into the fount to talk to him.

Esme did all the talking.

Later, Don and Don and Meen and Case went down to get Jim Jackson.

When they got back, Jim and Charlie spent an hour or an hour and a half in private talks talking to each other while we waited outside.

Later on we all talked some with Jim Jackson and then Jim left. Jim denoted that this happened and went back to Camp.
We all talked with him some more. He insisted and was very explicit about what happened. He agreed to sleep on it here at the Campmaster's alone and got good rest in the sleeping. I think it is important to note that although the other two Campmasters asked what happened and I did not, he gave this response:

He stuck me on the stomach, leg, and back. He hit me. He sucked my lips. He said these things to the best of my recollection and that was certainly his intention to relay that these things no doubt in his mind.

Campmaster

5-4-35
The trouble because this was a very serious charge. I asked him if we could just go ahead and talk to him. He said, "I'm going to call Charlie and talk to him."

Charlie was very tired and sleepy. We told him to put on clothes and come with us as we had a lot to talk about. We had his attention very quickly. He asked us what happened. Ennis told him what had happened. Charlie didn't believe what Ennis said. You don't have to say that. We told him just to come and be a man about it. We said, "We will come."

Ennis jumped up and said in a very loud, angry voice, "Don't you come close to me. Get back down and ask Charlie. Tell me what happened after a few seconds. Charlie said in another loud, angry voice, "Why did you do that? Get back. I don't know what you're talking about. Tell me what happened. Charlie kept saying you know what happened. I told him we had to get to the bottom of the charge. So, who do you want me to call? Your dad, Lloyd, or Robert. I told him to talk to Lloyd. I got up to call Lloyd."
About 11:30 P.M. on 5-3-85, James Roper came running into the Detective Chief's office, getting some thing off his back. Mr. Cameris was asleep, didn't quite understand what he had. I asked him if he was sick and he said yes.

Jim Thomas knew his voice and said what the matter was. He turned around and put his hand on the bed. He didn't say anything for a few seconds. I asked him again what the matter was. Then he said you want the case. Then James Jackson then asked where my room was very upset. We heard the door open and ask, what happen. He repeated the same thing, we ask him what he done and he said it got his hang on my leg and then it took action my legs. After several times, we asked him to repeat what happen. He said he laid there hard on my stomach. We asked him if he was sick and he said no.
and Jackson ask him if he could talk to him and get thing straighten out + said yes. - my self walked out on porch + let the two talk, which was about 45 minutes again I ask if he wanted Lloyd + Jim said let's stay on it write and finish in the morning said O.K. but him not going back to camp we told him we wouldn't let him go back to camp, but if wanted to go home. We said parent + we would take him. We got a car up the night before no trouble at all went right to sleep or was very quite. Got up 7:30 or 7:45 and was very calm said every thing was settled between them. He played all day + worked with things very well.

On May 3rd, 1985, I was on duty at the campmaster quarters at Naselle Scout Reservation. Manuel Crew and Charlie Lauders were also on duty. About 10:30
Charlie and myself went to bed. Manuel followed about 11:00. We heard a knock on the front door and Manuel said "Come in!"
A scout of the name [redacted] came into the sleeping area and leaned up against the bunkbed frame. [redacted] was shaking and he acted frightened. Manuel asked [redacted] if he was sick and [redacted] replied "Yes." I then sat up on the edge of my lower bunk and asked [redacted] what was wrong. [redacted] replied to me, "You are not going to believe what I am going to tell you, but Jim Jackson just took sexual advantage of me." I then replied, "You've got to be kidding!" Manuel, Charlie and myself got out of bed and got dressed and went into the living room with [redacted].
I just sat down and continued shaking.
Manuel got a blanket from his bed and gave it to [redacted]. [redacted] wrapped the blanket around himself and just sat there.
